

Canadian Bank Credit Card Product Catalog

Table of Contents

1. Introduction
2. Maple Rewards Visa Infinite
3. Maple Cash Back Mastercard
4. Maple Travel Elite Visa
5. Maple No-Fee Everyday Mastercard
6. Competitor Overview
  - RBC
  - TD Bank
  - Scotiabank
  - BMO
  - Tangerine
  - American Express
7. Competitive Comparison Summary
8. Market Position Overview

Introduction

Welcome to the Canadian Bank Credit Card Product Catalog. This catalog showcases Canadian Bank's newest credit card offerings available in Canada, designed to deliver maximum rewards, everyday value, travel benefits, and financial flexibility.

Presenting:

- Maple Rewards Visa Infinite: A premium travel rewards card offering accelerated points on groceries, gas, and travel purchases, comprehensive travel insurance, and airport lounge access.
- Maple Cash Back Mastercard: A versatile cash back card delivering up to 4% cash back on groceries and recurring bills, with no annual fee for the first year.
- Maple Travel Elite Visa: A top-tier travel card combining generous welcome bonuses, airport lounge access, comprehensive travel insurance, and luxury hotel benefits.
- Maple No-Fee Everyday Mastercard: A no-annual-fee card returning everyday value with 1% cash back on all purchases, making it ideal for straightforward spending.

Explore these Canadian Bank credit cards to find the perfect balance of rewards, travel benefits, and everyday savings for Canadian cardholders.

Maple Rewards Visa Infinite

The Maple Rewards Visa Infinite is a premium travel rewards credit card with an annual fee of $120 CAD. It offers an earn rate of 3 points per $1 spent on groceries and gas, 2 points per $1 on dining and travel, and 1 point per $1 on all other purchases. Points are redeemable at a value of approximately 1 cent per point toward travel, merchandise, or statement credits. New cardholders receive a welcome bonus of up to 50,000 points (valued at ~$500 CAD) upon meeting a $3,000 spend in the first 3 months. The card includes comprehensive travel insurance (emergency medical up to $5M CAD, trip cancellation, lost baggage), Visa Infinite concierge service, and access to Visa Infinite Dining and Wine Country programs. Purchase interest rate is 20.99% and cash advance rate is 22.99%. Minimum income requirement is $60,000 personal or $100,000 household.

Maple Cash Back Mastercard

The Maple Cash Back Mastercard provides strong everyday value with an annual fee of $99 CAD (waived in the first year). It earns 4% cash back on groceries and recurring bill payments, 2% on gas and transit, and 1% on all other purchases. Cash back is automatically credited to the cardholder's statement annually. New cardholders receive a welcome bonus of $150 cash back upon spending $500 in the first 3 months. The card includes extended warranty and purchase protection on eligible purchases, as well as mobile device insurance up to $1,000 CAD. Purchase interest rate is 19.99% and cash advance rate is 22.99%. No minimum income requirement.

Maple Travel Elite Visa

The Maple Travel Elite Visa is Canadian Bank's top-tier travel credit card with an annual fee of $599 CAD. It offers an earn rate of 3 points per $1 on all travel purchases, 2 points per $1 on dining and entertainment, and 1.5 points per $1 on everything else. The welcome bonus is up to 100,000 points (~$1,000 CAD value) upon meeting $5,000 spend in the first 3 months. Cardholders receive unlimited Priority Pass lounge access (including guests), $200 CAD annual travel credit, comprehensive travel insurance (emergency medical up to $5M, trip cancellation/interruption, flight delay), hotel status upgrades, and a NEXUS/Global Entry fee credit every 4 years. Purchase interest rate is 20.99%. Minimum income requirement is $80,000 personal or $150,000 household.

Maple No-Fee Everyday Mastercard

The 2025 Maple No-Fee Everyday Mastercard is Canadian Bank's entry-level card with no annual fee. It earns 1% cash back on all purchases with no caps or category restrictions. New cardholders receive a $50 welcome bonus after their first purchase. The card includes basic purchase protection and extended warranty on eligible items. It features a low minimum income requirement with no stated threshold, making it accessible to students and newcomers to Canada. Purchase interest rate is 19.99% and cash advance rate is 22.99%.

Competitor Overview

This section highlights key credit card competitors from RBC, TD Bank, Scotiabank, BMO, Tangerine, and American Express across rewards, cash back, travel, and no-fee categories.

RBC Avion Visa Infinite

The RBC Avion Visa Infinite is a premium travel rewards card with an annual fee of $120 CAD. It earns 1 Avion point per $1 on all purchases, with 25% more points on travel. Points can be redeemed for flights, merchandise, or gift cards at approximately 1 cent per point. A welcome bonus of 35,000 Avion points is offered upon approval. The card includes comprehensive travel insurance, Visa Infinite benefits, and 12 complimentary Boingo Wi-Fi passes annually. Purchase interest rate is 20.99%. Minimum income requirement is $60,000 personal or $100,000 household. Estimated annual value for an average Canadian spender is approximately $350–$500 CAD.

TD First Class Travel Visa Infinite

The TD First Class Travel Visa Infinite has an annual fee of $139 CAD. It earns 8 TD Points per $1 spent on Expedia for TD purchases and 2 TD Points per $1 on all other purchases. The welcome bonus offers up to 100,000 TD Points (~$500 CAD). Travel insurance includes emergency medical, trip cancellation, and delayed baggage coverage. Purchase interest rate is 20.99%. Minimum income is $60,000 personal or $100,000 household. Estimated Canadian pricing for rewards value ranges from $400 to $600 CAD annually for an average spender.

Scotiabank Gold American Express

The Scotiabank Gold American Express card has an annual fee of $120 CAD. It earns 6 Scene+ points per $1 at eligible grocery stores, 5 points on dining, entertainment, and streaming, and 3 points on gas and transit. No foreign transaction fees apply, making it strong for international travel. The welcome bonus offers up to 45,000 Scene+ points. Purchase interest rate is 20.99%. Minimum income is $12,000 annually. Estimated annual value for rewards is approximately $500–$700 CAD for a typical Canadian spender.

BMO Eclipse Visa Infinite

The BMO Eclipse Visa Infinite has an annual fee of $120 CAD (rebated in the first year). It earns 5 BMO Rewards points per $1 on groceries, dining, gas, and transit, and 1 point per $1 on all other purchases. A welcome bonus of up to 60,000 BMO Rewards points is offered. The card includes a $50 lifestyle credit annually and travel insurance. Purchase interest rate is 20.99%. Minimum income is $60,000 personal or $100,000 household. Estimated rewards value for an average spender is $400–$550 CAD annually.

Tangerine Money-Back Credit Card

The Tangerine Money-Back Credit Card has no annual fee. It earns 2% cash back in up to 3 categories of the cardholder's choice (groceries, restaurants, gas, recurring bills, etc.) and 0.5% on all other purchases. Cash back is deposited monthly into a Tangerine savings account. No minimum income requirement applies. Purchase interest rate is 19.95%. It is a direct competitor to the Maple No-Fee Everyday Mastercard, emphasizing flexible, no-fee cash back. Estimated annual value is approximately $200–$300 CAD depending on spending habits.

American Express Cobalt Card

The American Express Cobalt Card has a monthly fee of $12.99 CAD ($155.88 CAD annually). It earns 5 Membership Rewards points per $1 on food and drinks in Canada, 3 points on streaming services, 2 points on travel and transit, and 1 point per $1 on everything else. A welcome bonus of up to 15,000 points per month (for the first year) is offered for meeting monthly spend thresholds. Travel insurance, hotel benefits, and American Express Front Of The Line presale event access are included. No minimum income requirement. Estimated rewards value for an average spender is $600–$900 CAD annually.

Overall Market Position

- Canadian Bank leads in accelerated grocery and everyday rewards earn rates.
- RBC excels in flexible travel redemption and broad Avion partner network.
- TD Bank dominates in Expedia travel booking value and points volume.
- Scotiabank leads in no foreign transaction fee cards and Scene+ entertainment rewards.
- BMO offers strong category-based earning with lifestyle perks.
- Tangerine focuses on no-fee simplicity with flexible cash back categories.
- American Express leads in premium dining and lifestyle rewards for urban Canadians.